

INSTITUTE OF DEVELOPMENT STUDIES
8-B, Jhalana Institutional Area, Jaipur

No. IDSJ/Adm/Project/2018

December 31, 2018

The Institute of Development Studies, Jaipur requires two Researchers for a UNICEF supported project titled 'Mapping and Analysis of Social Protection Schemes for the Girl Child in Rajasthan' for a maximum period of six months.

Candidates should possess a Masters/ Doctorate degree in Women's Studies/ Development Studies/ Economics (specialization in econometrics/statistics), minimum 2-5 years' experience in field of development research. They should have experience of working on state level policies and programmes, willingness to interact with different state government departments and a good understanding of gender and development issues. Monitoring & Evaluation experience will be an added asset. Preference will be given to women candidates.

She/he will be responsible for reviewing and analyzing all government programmes (sectoral and regional) related to the girl child in Rajasthan including budget documents, developing a comparative report on various programmes focusing on the girl child implemented by the central and state governments and internationally.

The emoluments will be between Rs 20 - 25000/- per month. Interested candidates may apply within 7 days of this advertisement along with a copy of their detailed CV and a one-page note on the theme of the project.

Prof (Hon.) Kanchan Mathur: kanchan@idsj.org / kanchanmathur10@gmail.com

Dr. Motilal Mahamallik: mahamallikm@gmail.com